Peace is described as a condition of freedom from disturbance within the soul. It is perfect harmony reigning within. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body: and be thankful.

"Everyday peace is a gift from God, and we must learn to defend it relentlessly."

Noah had radical faith Genesis Chapter 6

The bigger God becomes in your heart, the smaller your challenges become.

So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. But when he saw that the wind was boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!" And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" Matthew 14:29-31 (NKJV)

"When the storms of life get rough, remember, your lifeguard walks on water."
