Three Prayer Principles from the Life of Daniel

1. Prayer is a Lifelong Skill.

Psalm 55:17, Evening, and morning,
and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and He shall hear my voice.

Luke 11:1, One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, ‘Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.’”

2. Involve Others in Praying.

Daniel 2:17-19, Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, So that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven.

“A family without prayer is like a house without a roof, open and exposed to all the storms of heaven.”

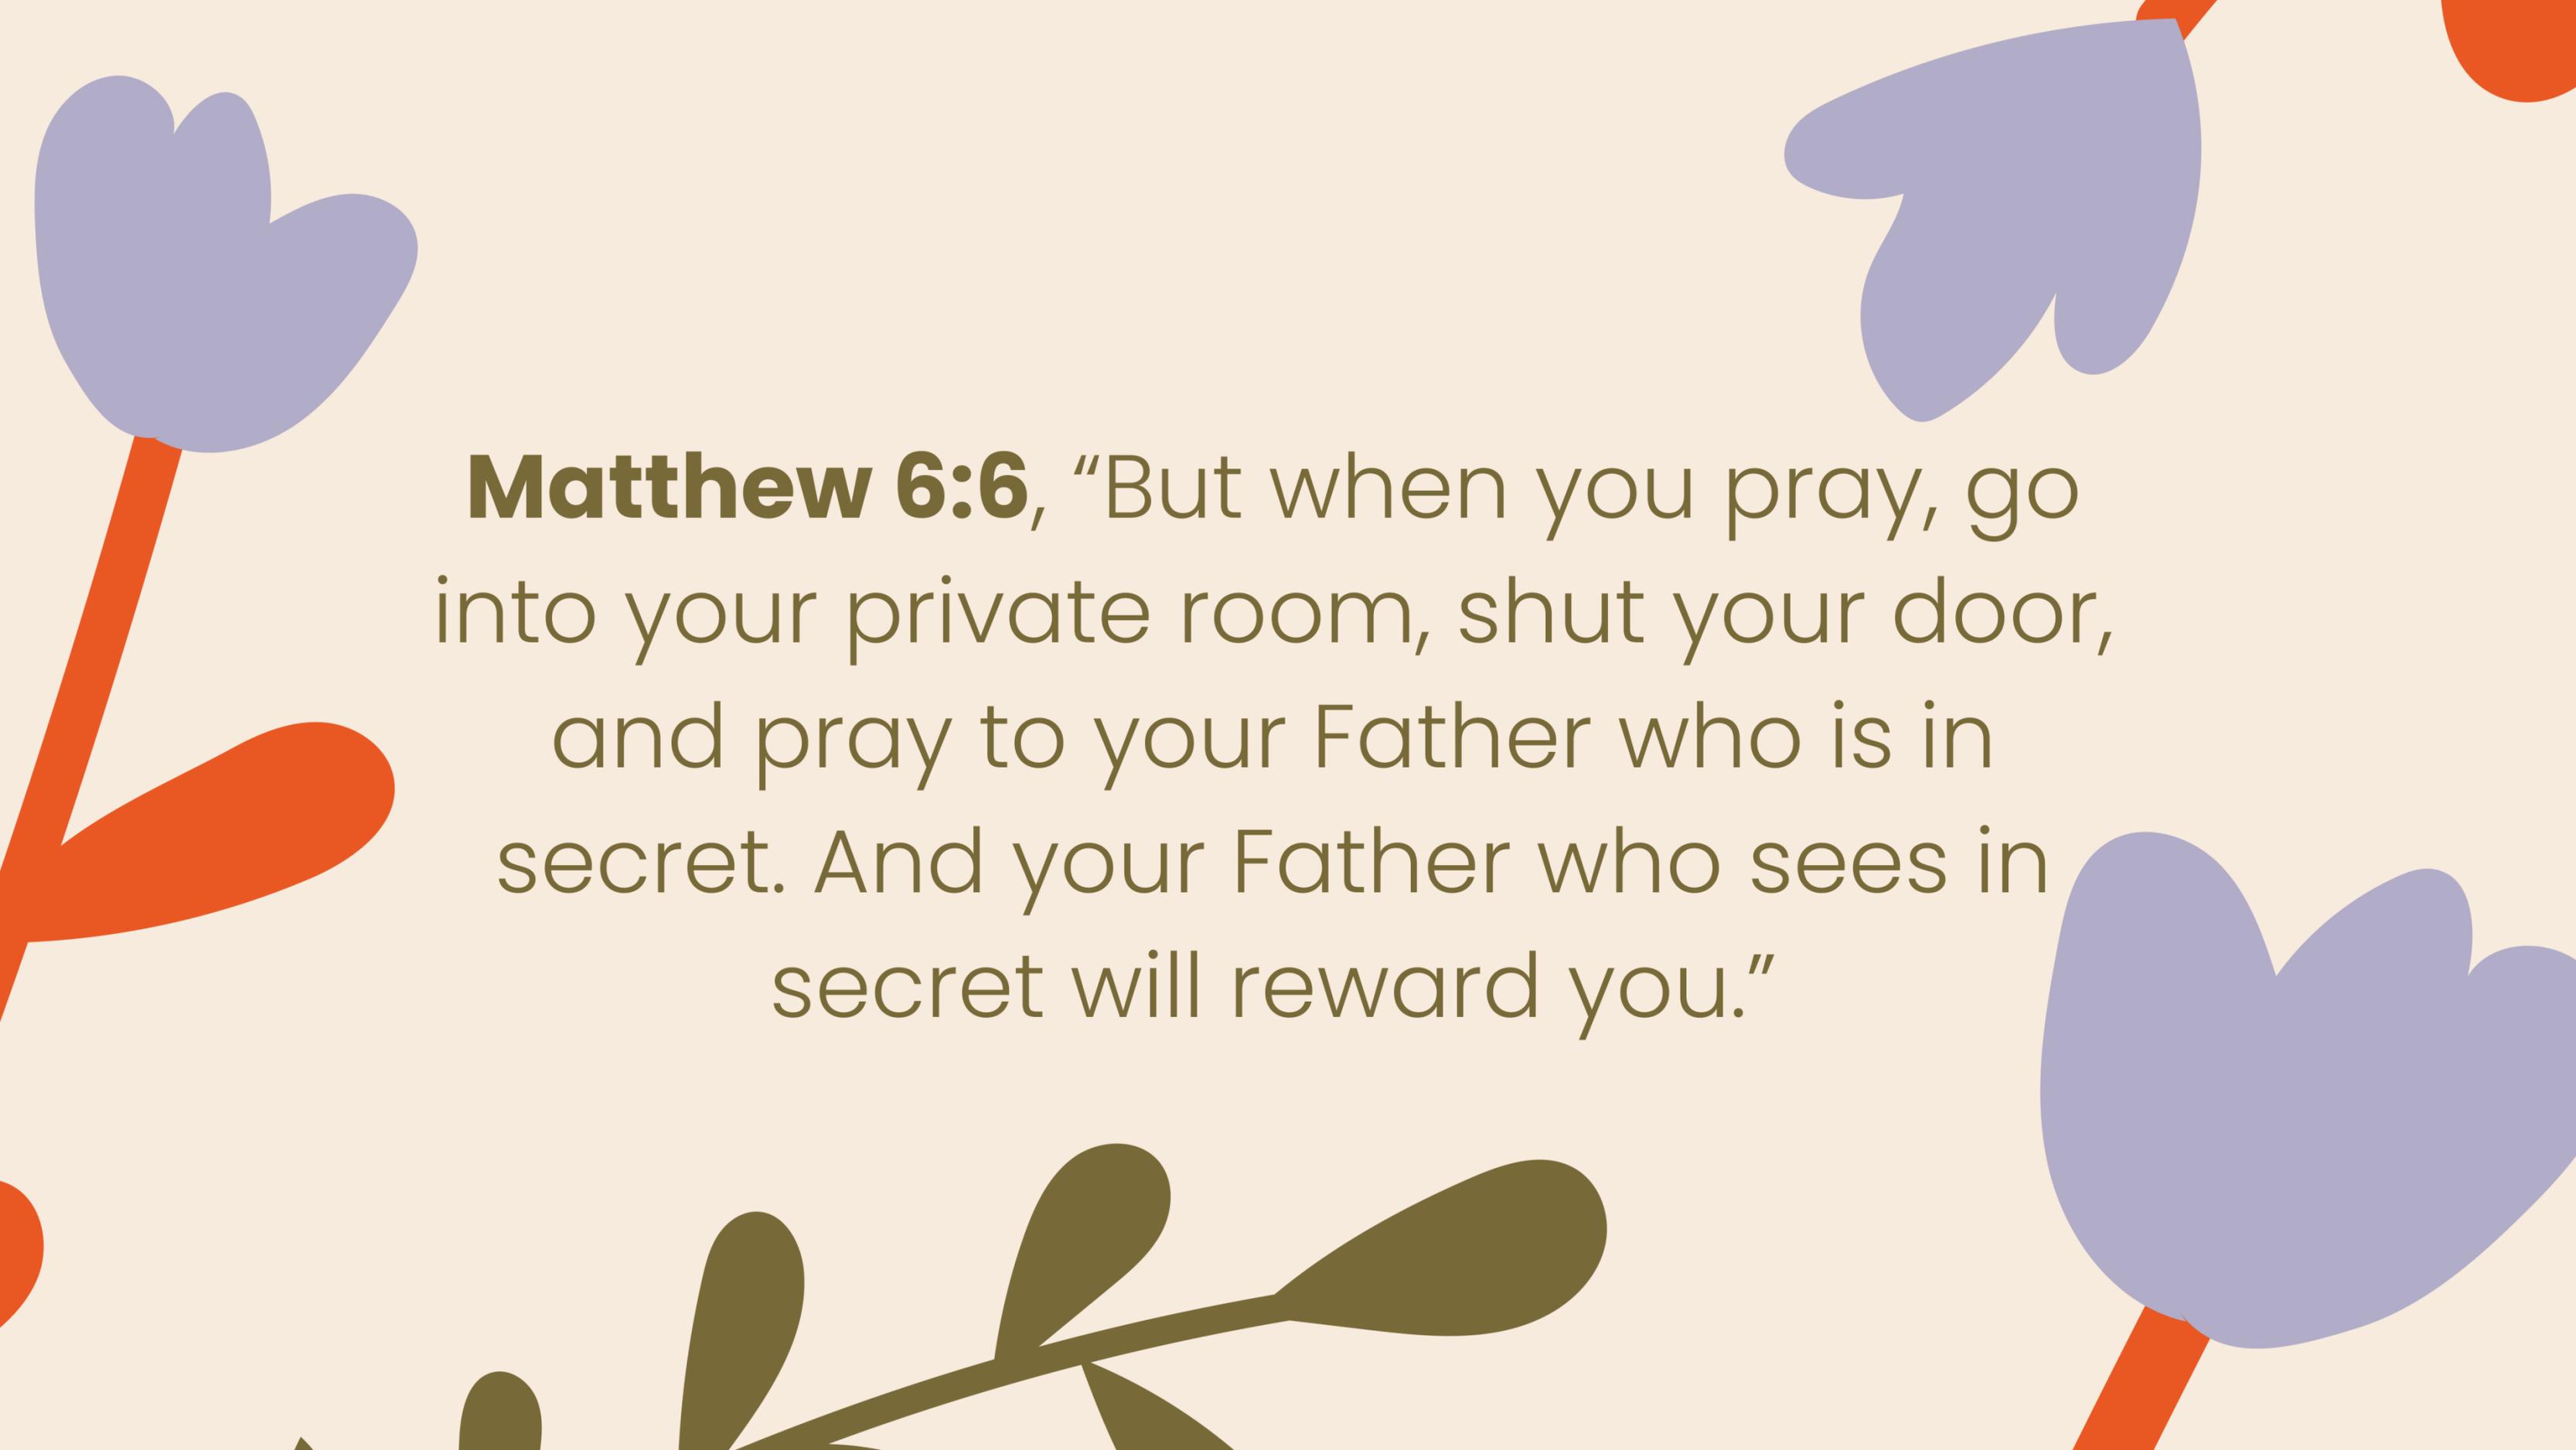

Acts 4:24,31, When they heard the report, all the believers lifted their voices together in prayer to God. After this prayer, the meeting place shook, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. Then they preached the Word of God with boldness.

3. Pray All By Yourself.

Daniel 6:10, When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went to his house. An upper room in his house had windows that opened in the direction of Jerusalem. Three times each day he got down on his knees and prayed to his God. He had always praised God this way.

There are several stylized floral elements: a purple flower with an orange stem and leaf on the left; a purple flower with an orange stem on the top right; a purple flower with an orange stem on the bottom right; and a green stem with several green leaves at the bottom center.

Matthew 6:6, "But when you pray, go into your private room, shut your door, and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you."
