THE TRAGIC TALE
OF LOT'S DAUGHTERS

Life in the Word

Lesson:

The Tragic Tale of Lot's Daughters

Scripture Lesson:

Genesis 19:30-38

Genesis 19:30-38, Lot left Zoar and went into the mountains to live with his two daughters; he was afraid to stay in Zoar. He lived in a cave with his daughters. One day the older daughter said to the younger, “Our father is getting old and there’s not a man left in the country by whom we can get pregnant. Let’s get our father drunk with wine and lie with him. We’ll get children through our father—it’s our only chance to keep our family alive.” They got their father drunk with wine that very night. The older daughter went and lay with him. He was oblivious, knowing nothing of what she did. The next morning the older said to the younger, “Last night I slept with my father. Tonight, it’s your turn.

We'll get him drunk again and then you sleep with him. We'll both get a child through our father and keep our family alive." So that night they got their father drunk again and the younger went in and slept with him. Again, he was oblivious, knowing nothing of what she did. Both daughters became pregnant by their father, Lot. The older daughter had a son and named him Moab, the ancestor of the present-day Moabites. The younger daughter had a son and named him Ben-Ammi, the ancestor of the present-day Ammonites.

Four Lessons from this Unusual and Disturbing Events:

1. Don't Underestimate the Power of a Sinful Environment to Sear the Conscience.

The Greek word for CONSCIENCE
literally means to possess “co-knowledge” of something resulting in one’s “sense of guiltiness before God.”

1 Timothy 4:1-2, Now the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons, speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their own conscience seared with a hot iron.”

Titus 1:14, To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

The person who habitually gives himself
over to sin loses the ability to feel the spiritual “pain”
of sin.

2. Choose Faith; Fear God,
Not Your Circumstance.

"All our fear and worry
are caused by calculating without God."

Psalm 33:18-19, Behold, the eye of the Lord is on those who fear Him, on those who wait for His faithfulness, to rescue their soul from death and to keep them alive in famine.

3. Choose Humility, Even When You've Burned Your Bridges.

“The hardest thing in life to learn is which bridge to cross and which to burn.”

Proverbs 11:2, When pride comes, then comes dishonor; but with the humble there is wisdom.

Proverbs 29:23, A person's pride will bring him low, but a humble spirit will obtain honor.

“Humility is the gateway
into the grace and favor of God.”

4. God's Sovereignty and Grace can Bring Good
from our Failures.

God is able to bring good out of all our failures and foolish choices.

God always get
the last word!

Romans 8:28, And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

“Every weakness you have is an opportunity for God to show His strength in your life.”
